LIBRARY OF CONGRESS CARDS

Numbers to be used in ordering the printed catalog cards of the Library of Congress are given at the end of the main (author) entry of each book. When the card for a serial publication or a many volumed set appearing at intervals is printed as an open entry card, the number is enclosed in curves ( ). Where the card number is enclosed in brackets [ ] it indicates that the card at Library of Congress is for an edition of the book other than the one listed; or is for the English edition when two numbers are given.

When a book is entered before the Library of Congress card number can be procured, the main entry is reentered in a succeeding issue of the Index with the order number attached.

For cards ordered by numbers (each on a separate slip with number of copies wanted indicated by a slanting line, e.g. 5-2850/4) the price is 6c for the first copy and 3½c for each additional copy. If the order is by author and title, the price of the first card is 10c. For further information apply to the Card Division of the Library of Congress, Washington 25, D.C.

PREFACE

This volume is a record of books published during the five years 1938-1942 inclusive, and forms a third permanent supplement to the fourth edition of the United States Catalog.

During this period there has been no change in the principles of inclusion of works. Thus, as far as war conditions have permitted, the Cumulative Book Index continues to be a complete bibliography of works in English, exclusive of government documents, cheap paper bound editions of fiction, tracts, propaganda and other issues of local or ephemeral nature. Other books have been omitted because it was impossible to find out the source from which they could be obtained.

Beginning with 1940 very few publications from occupied countries and from the Far East have been entered. If, after the war, there are found to have been any of importance, they will be entered in later volumes of the Cumulative Book Index. In spite of war, the number of entries from the British dominions has increased; books have been included from the following countries:

Afghanistan
Argentina
Australia
Austria
Barbados
Belgium
Bermuda
Bohemia
Brazil
Burma
Canada
Ceylon
Chile
China
Cuba
Czechoslovakia
Denmark
East Africa
Egypt
Estonia
Federated Malay States
Finland
France
Germany
Great Britain
Greece
Hong Kong
Hungary
India
Italy
Jamaica
Japan
Java
Kenya Colony and Protectorate
Korea
Latvia
Lithuania
Manchuria
Mexico
Netherlands
New Zealand
Nigeria
Norway
Palestine
Panama
Philippine Islands
Poland
Rhodesia
Russia
South Africa
Straits Settlements
Sweden
Switzerland
Syria
Thailand
Trinidad

Theoretically no books published later than 1942 are included here. But when a book was published in one country in 1942, and it appeared in another country early enough in 1943 to be included, that has been done. Books published in several countries have been entered with special care. Publisher in each country of issue is given, with price in the currency of that country, except in the case of a few publishers who habitually quote otherwise. Any variations of title or format are shown in the entry. Changes in publisher and price have been made to agree with latest information received before going to press. Changes of publisher of editions listed in the United States Catalog and the Cumulative Book Indexes of 1928-1932 and 1933-1937 are designated (corr pub). All books previously entered which had a price change of more than 50 cents have been reentered to show this change, with the designation (corr price); but price changes take place so rapidly that users are warned, in ordering books, to allow for possible unrecorded price revisions.

No attempt has been made to check out of print items. However, when definite information on these items has been available, it has been indicated by the usual sign, o.p. A few books of publishers who have recently gone out of business have been impossible for us to trace. When the entries of these still stand with the original publisher, it may be quite safely assumed that they have been remaindered, and are now out of print. The original entries have been allowed to stand in case of European and Asiatic publishers who have suspended business for the duration of the war, or who have temporary war addresses.

The staff required for a publication of this sort is necessarily large, and during this five-year wartime period has undergone many changes. This makes it possible to acknowledge the contributions only of those who have carried the responsibility for various stages of the work. Martha Mercer Aluisio has been in charge of compiling, Charlotte Squires has been responsible for name forms, and Agnes Smith has done the final alphabeting. Mary Fahey, Lillian Meyer and Rosa Wyschograd have not only revised copy but have also read the final proofs of this volume. Ruth Ward and Estelle Mendelsohn Rosenfeld have dealt with much of the detail entailed by cumulation, and Marguerite Vasti and Gunhild McCormick have attended to the final processes connected with proof correction. To these, as well as to others who could not be mentioned, the editors wish to express their appreciation for efficient and loyal cooperation.
